❖ Catholic Social Teaching On the threshold of the public life: the baptism; on the threshold of the Passover: the Transfiguration. Jesus' baptism proclaimed the mystery of the first regeneration, namely, our Baptism; the Transfiguration is the sacrament of the second regeneration: our own Resurrection. From now on we share in the Lord's Resurrection through the Spirit who acts in the sacraments of the Body of Christ. The Transfiguration not only gives us a foretaste of Christ's glorious coming, when he will change our lowly body to be like his glorious body, but also recalls that it is through many persecutions that we will enter the kingdom of God" (CCC, 556). Without the eyes of our heart focused on the light manifest through the Gospel, while we may physically rise, we could slumber in action. Christ helps us to rise and to not be afraid. The transformative power of Christ helps to steady us on the path to everlasting life, in spite of the challenging difficulties that may be encountered in relationships, work, and society. En el umbral de la vida pública: el bautismo; en el umbral de la Pascua: la Transfiguración. El bautizo de Jesús proclamó el misterio de la primera regeneración, es decir, nuestro Bautismo; la Transfiguración es el sacramento de la segunda regeneración: nuestra propia Resurrección. Desde ahora compartimos en la Resurrección del Señor a través del Espíritu que actúa en los sacramentos del Cuerpo de Cristo. "La Transfiguración no solo nos da una probada de la gloriosa venida de Cristo, cuando Él cambiará nuestro humilde cuerpo para que sea como su cuerpo glorioso, pero también recuerda que es a través de muchas persecuciones que entraremos al Reino de Dios" (CCC, 556). Sin los ojos de nuestro corazón enfocados en la luz manifiesta a través del Evangelio, aunque podamos levantarnos físicamente, sucumbiremos en la acción. Cristo nos ayuda a levantarnos y a no tener miedo. El poder transformador de Cristo nos ayuda a mantenernos firmes en el camino de la vida eterna, a pesar de las retadoras dificultades que puede que encontremos en las relaciones, en el trabajo y en la sociedad.

❖ "THANK YOU! ¡GRACIAS! *The Sisters of the Divine Providence, the family of Sister Catherine and Alice "Sr. Beba" Mazoch want to thank everyone who helped plan and participated in Sr. Catherine's Memorial Mass: Fr. ❖ DISCIPULADO Hoy celebramos la Fiesta de la Tranfiguración del Señor, y en la lectura del evangelio de hoy escuchamos la proclamación acerca de que, sobre el Monte Tabor, Pedro, Santiago y Juan vislumbraron la divinidad de Jesús lo suficientemente fuerte como para infundir temor en sus corazones. El hecho tuvo lugar poco después de la confesión de fe de Pedro, de que Jesús era el Mesías. En la segunda lectura de hoy, de Pedro, nosotros escuchamos su testimonio personal. Este viene de un hombre que pasó más de tres años con Jesús. Pedro fue testigo de su humanidad. Él vio a Jesús hambriento, cansado, y nalmente, rechazado y crucificado. Pero él vio también a Jesús alimentando a 5,000 personas, caminar sobre el agua, curar a los enfermos y resucitar a los muertos. Él vio a Jesús en su gloria cuando fue transfigurado. Vio a Jesús resucitado de la muerte y ascendido al cielo con la promesa de que vendrá otra vez en poder y gloria. ¿Qué tan fuerte es la corresponsabilidad de nuestra fe? ¿Aceptamos nosotros el testimonio apostólico de Pedro acerca de Jesús como Cristo? ¿Nos ayuda este testimonio a conocer y con ar en Cristo Jesús como nuestro Señor y salvador? /Today we celebrate the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord, and in today's Gospel reading we hear it proclaimed that on Mount Tabor, Peter, James, and John caught a glimpse of Jesus' divinity strong enough to strike fear into their hearts. The event took place shortly after Peter's confession of faith that Jesus was, indeed, the Messiah. In today's second reading from Peter, we hear his personal testimony. This comes from a man who spent more than three years with Jesus. Peter witnessed his humanity. He saw Jesus hungry, tired, and finally, rejected and crucified. But he also saw Jesus feed the 5,000, walk on water, heal the sick, and raise the dead. He saw Jesus in his glory when he was transfigured. He saw Jesus risen from the dead and ascend into heaven with the promise that he is coming again in power and glory. How strong is the stewardship of our own faith? Do we accept Peter's apostolic witness to Jesus as Christ? Does this testimony help us acknowledge and trust Christ Jesus as our Lord and savior?
